

Dreaming

I can't do it justice
The beating of my heart
Longing for a love like that
Longing for a start

To a love that feels like breathing
Like I don't even have to try
But I do it 'cause I want to
Because I love to see you fly

Fly above the stars and sky
With me right by your side
Let me spin among the planets
Til again our songs collide

I can't do it justice
With just words and meter
How much love I have to give
To you, my own Saint Peter

I might not know how to finesse
The perfect movie romance
But I can make you laugh a lot
And always save you a dance

How is any of it possible?
I'm struggling right now to see
Gentle touches, a rapid heartbeat
How will it happen for me?
